Among those who attended the Irvin Cobb dinner at the Bohemian Club in San Francisco last week were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leon Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Osburn, and George Sterling.

George Schweninger went to San Francisco last Thursday with Roy Babcock. They were away for several days.

Bookkeepers' supplies at less than pre-war prices at Holman's.

S. J. Wyatt and family are now living in Oakland, and will not return to Carmel to reside. Mr. Wyatt was down last week, packing up household goods for shipment.

Chamito Graziola, a Monterey boy in France with the Field Signal Battalion, writes to his brother an interesting account of his experiences in which he frequently mentions Lloyd Glatzback, known to many in Carmel.

The generous patronage given the Carmel Meat Market is much appreciated by Hugo Futterer, and he looks forward to splendid spring and summer business.

Mrs. Marrack and daughters are returning to Palo Alto this week. During their stay here they have entered heartily into the activities of the community, and their departure is much regretted.

In order to be closer to the populous center of town, the McColloms are moving this week. They have taken the Maxtons' Graham house at Lincoln st. and Seventh ave.

Week-end visitors included H. W. Pudan and Harry Lachmund from San Francisco, and Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Christy from San Jose.

Mrs. Clara Bachman of Milwaukee arrived here last Friday, and will be the guest for some time of Mrs. Ada Beecher. Mrs. Beecher, by the way, has taken a cottage, where she is pursuing a her art work.

Mrs. A. M. Campbell is here from Grand Rapids, Michigan, for a two months' stay. Major Campbell, her husband, is with the Medical Corps in France. With Mrs. Thos. McBride, Mrs. Campbell is occupying the Merriam house.

Standard Fishing Tackle at half the regular prices at Holman's.

For the next three months at least Mrs. Warren Shepard Matthews of San Francisco will occupy the Hall cottage here. Her mother has taken the Rigney cottage close by.

Mrs. Blanche K. Corby, C.S.B., member of the Lectureship Board of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, will speak on "Christian Science," tomorrow evening, at T. A. Work Hall, Pacific Grove. Those of Carmel desiring to attend may leave their names for the stage at Pine Inn before tomorrow noon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Worthington are preparing to leave for England shortly. They left yesterday for a month's stay at Pasadena before going abroad. They have made many friends here during their stay and their departure is regretted. But they'll be back.

Mrs. S. F. Bates of Andover, Ohio, an acquaintance of Dr. and Mrs. McCollom, is visiting in Carmel for a month. She is occupying "The Breakers."

Miss Isabel Logie will shortly run up to San Francisco to meet the China steamer, which is bringing her brother home from India.

Quite a number of parents were on hand at the public school patriotic exercises last Friday afternoon. The children were costumed to represent various American heroes, and Betty Marrack wore the Masonic waistcoat and apron which was worn by Marquise de Lafayette.

If you read it in the Pine Cone you may safely repeat it.

Worthington Farewell Party at the Bluebird

The Blue Bird Tearoom presented a gala appearance Tuesday evening. At the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. James Worthington, who are leaving Carmel this week, a large number of folks gathered for a "farewell" party. And it was a decidedly successful affair. Dancing took up most of the evening, but no less interesting were the music and singing of Mrs. Montgomery and Vashi. Shortly after refreshments were served, it being near midnight, the guests bid the hosts a reluctant farewell.

Those invited were:

Mrs. Frances Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. C. Van Riper, Mr. and Mrs. Vashi Vaseloff, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Overstreet, Mrs. Seideneck, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Heron.

Jeannette Hoagland, Katharine Cooke, Grace Wickham, Bonnie Hale, Elizabeth and Maryan Hopper, Phyllis Overstreet, Hilda and Helen Hilliard, Juanita Turner, Miss Hunkins, Elliot, Marion and Charis Boke, Alice Hilby, Shelley Harthorne.

Clarence Risley, James Wilson, Ernest and George Schweninger, George Seideneck, Walter Moffat, Donald Hale, Talbert Josselyn, H. H. Tompkinson, L. Harthorne.

It is important to bear in mind that Saturday, March 15, is the last day for filing income tax statements.

A payment of at least one-fourth of the tax must be made on or before that date.

Justus S. Wardell, Internal Revenue Collector, urges every person liable to make a clean and complete transaction by paying the entire tax when return is filed.

Legal forms, serially numbered, are being mailed to every individual in the district who made a return last year, based upon an income of $5000 or less. Payers in this class are advised to await receipt of the form. If the form is not received by the end of this week, send for it.

Carmel Boy Home From Overseas

Corporal Donald L. Hale, son of Mrs. F. R. Becholdt, is home from Europe, after an absence of over a year with the American Expeditionary Force.

But a very short time after the United States declared war on Germany Hale enlisted in San Francisco, joining the 30th Engineers (Gas and Flame), which later became the First Gas Regiment, and which, after a period of training at Fort Meyer, Virginia, sailed for France in January, 1918.

Corporal Hale has seen much real service. From the start the First Gas Regiment was in the heaviest of the fighting. Because of their peculiar duties the gas fighters had to be in front, to pave the way for the infantry and draw the enemy artillery fire.

Toward the end of April last year the First Gas Regiment was used in all sectors in which there were American forces, and took an active part in the engagements at Toul, the Vosges, Chateau Thierry, St. Mihiel and the Argonne. At one time the gas fighters fought forty out of forty-nine consecutive days, and through it all Donald Hale came through without a scratch.

The officers and men of the regiment were awarded eighty Croix de Guerre, twenty-six Distinguished Service Crosses and twelve officers have been cited for our Army's Distinguished Service Medal—a remarkable showing for a single regiment.

To Mrs. Anna Gale Andres of Salinas, chairman of the California history committee of the Native Daughters of the Golden West, has been assigned the interesting task of writing a series of biographical sketches of the Spanish, Mexican and American pioneers Monterey county. These sketches will be published in the Encyclopedia of California Biography, edited by Rockwell Hunt, president of the University of Southern California. Much of the material and data will relate to men and women who were prominent residents of the Monterey peninsula in the days gone by.

WEEKLY GREETING

May we not look forward to the time when we shall be called blessed among the nations, because we succored the nations of the world in their time of distress and of dismay.—President Wilson.

Will Pass Through Carmel

One of the most important matters which will come before the State Legislature when the members reconvene at Sacramento will be the state highway which has just been surveyed by state engineers from a point near Posts in this county to a point just south of the Monterey county line, a distance of fifty-three miles. This is the "missing link" in the state highway between San Francisco and Los Angeles, and it is a highway which will prove of great benefit not only to Monterey and Monterey county in general but to the entire state as well, for it will make available vast undeveloped wealth in minerals, timber, agricultural and horticultural lands. It will pass through the great forest reserve of Monterey county, the largest tract of undeveloped reserve in California. The tract has within its boundaries hundreds of acres of giant redwoods, and also spruce and tanbark trees.

It also contains gold and silver mines, chrome deposits of great value, and thousands of acres that will be made available for agriculture, horticulture, dairying and stock raising. The opening up of this primeval forest and the adjacent farming lands will add immensely to the taxable property of the state, and in this way the people of the entire state will be benefitted.

It will prove of immense value to Monterey city and Monterey county, as it will bring here every year thousands of tourists who would otherwise never visit this section.

County Surveyor Howard F. Cozens has just compiled a map of the proposed highway and it shows in detail the lands, forests and mines in the territory through which it will pass. This map was prepared for State Senator E. S. Rigdon and Supervisor J. L. D. Roberts for use in the State Legislature when the bill asking for an appropriation for the construction of the state highway comes before the state solons.

Supervisor Roberts is making arrangements for the taking of photographs in various sections of the country through which the road will pass. The construction of this highway is a great undertaking, but there should be no delay in beginning the work.—Cypress-American.

That which Carmel business people, hotel managers and cottage owners have long striven for—the making of Carmel a winter resort as well as a summer resort—is coming to pass. During the past three months there have been more sojourners here than ever in the same months. February, which has always been the duller month of the year, compared very favorably this year with the late summer months.

The Ball Game

Old Jupiter Pluvius held off just long enough last Saturday afternoon to permit the Carmel baseball players to complete a five-inning game.

Considering that the players had had little or no practice together a fairly interesting exhibition of the national pastime was given.

There was a near riot when the umpire declared "Wienie" Grasse "out" on a close play at second base, but Grasse got even later on (when the "ump" was not looking) and pushed Ben Leidig off third base for an "out." Other features of the contest, which was won by the Married men, were Ramsay's pitching, Bob Leidig's big league "stuff," and Carlisle Stoner's "pop." The teams were as follows:

Married Men	Single Men
Adams	King
Ben Leidig	Ramsay
Peckham	Leo Narvaez
Lawrence Leidig	Carlisle Stoner
Min	E. Schweninger
Lewis	Fraties
Harry Turner	Josselyn
Heron	Harry Lachmund
Bob Leidig	Grasse
